FRIDAY

SESSION I: Friday, 10:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.
A. Rethinking American Narratives
B. Practice and Methods in Political Theory (Roundtable)
C. Identities, Communities, Borders
D. Accounting for Time in Democracy

LUNCHEON: Friday, 12:30 – 1:30 p.m.

SESSION II: Friday, 1:30 – 3:30 p.m.
A. Problems of Nationality and Identity
B. Religious Conversations and the Limits of Pluralism
C. Drama, Resistance, and Political Theory
D. Community and Capital, Social and Economic

SESSION III: Friday, 4 – 6 p.m.
A. Judgment and Action in Democratic Politics
B. Natural Law Then and Now
C. Autonomy and Feminist Ethics

OPENING RECEPTION: Friday, 6 – 7 p.m.

OPENING DINNER: Friday, 7 – 8:30 p.m.

SATURDAY

SESSION IV: Saturday, 8:45 – 10:45 a.m.
A. Debates in Deliberative Democracy
B. Religion and the Grounds of Political Authority
C. Responding to Violence
D. Early Modern Political Thought in Context

SESSION V: Saturday, 11:15 – 1:15 p.m.
A. Prospects for American Conservatism (Roundtable)
B. The Limits of Liberalism
C. Linguistic Politics
D. The Practical Import of Utopianism

LUNCHEON: Saturday, 1:15 – 2:45 p.m.

SESSION VI: Saturday, 2:45 – 4:45 p.m.
A. Theorizing Policy
B. Rethinking Classical Critiques of Democracy
C. Race, Reparations, Reform, and Revolution
D. Approaches to Contemporary Political Theory

PLENARY PANELS: Saturday, 5:15 – 6:30 p.m.
A. Political Theory and Civic Education
B. Author Meets the Critics: Amatai Etzioni

CLOSING RECEPTION: Saturday, 6:30 – 7:30 p.m.

SUNDAY

APT BUSINESS MEETING, 8-10 a.m.
Sheraton Clayton Plaza Hotel St. Louis