CALL FOR PAPERS AND PARTICIPANTS

Southwestern Political Science Association
March 14-17, 2007
Albuquerque, New Mexico

(Proposal Deadline - October 15, 2006)

Now is the time to submit your proposal for the SWPSA Annual Meeting, in conjunction with the Southwestern Social Science Association, to be held in Albuquerque, New Mexico, March 14-17, 2007. Join more than 500 political scientists and nearly 1,000 other social scientists for the 2007 annual meeting at this new location. Albuquerque combines a unique blend of multiculturalism, natural beauty, profound historic attractions, museums, galleries, and shopping and is the perfect location to experience the authentic Southwest. (For tourist information, please visit http://www.itsatrip.org/visitors ). The SWPSA Conference also provides numerous formal and informal opportunities to network with fellow political scientists and social scientists from a variety of other disciplines.

PROPOSALS

We welcome proposals for any of the following and encourage participation as a panel chair or discussant:

• Individual or Co-authored Papers
• Complete Panels
• Roundtables
• Undergraduate and Graduate Student Research
• Poster Sessions

To submit a proposal or sign-up as a chair or discussant, please follow these directions.

• Complete the proposal form found on the SWPSA website (www.swpsa.org).
• Submit the form to the appropriate section chair or the program chair at the email addresses listed below (also available on the website) no later than October 15, 2006.
• You will get a confirmation email that your proposal has been received by the section chair and you will be notified of the status of your proposal once all proposals have been reviewed. The final notification will be sent to you in approximately mid-November.

AWARDS

The SWPSA gives six best paper awards, with prizes varying from $250 to $500 (including prizes for graduate and undergraduate research).
